

THE CROWN INN

PISHILL

Welcome

From everyone here at The Crown Inn, Pishill; we offer our warmest congratulations on your engagement and forthcoming Wedding. We are delighted that you are considering The Crown Inn as a venue for your special day.

Nestled in the heart of the Stonor Valley, this 15th century former Coaching Inn provides the perfect setting for your Wedding celebrations; we endeavour to combine traditional style with excellent food and splendid service.

Your Perfect Day

The Crown Inn has roots dating back to the 15th century, steeped in history the Barn can provide a stunning setting for your perfect country Wedding. The rustic yet resplendent interior can lend itself to either elegant or informal decor for such an important day. For the Wedding Breakfast; 80 guests can be comfortably seated and then for the evening reception; 110 standing.

The dedicated Wedding Manager will guide you through the entire process making sure every detail is thought through, ensuring that perfect service is provided on the day.

The Crown Inn is a delightful setting for your intimate Wedding.

Your Ceremony

We are here to fully accommodate your civil ceremony. The Barn will be beautifully set up for the moment you are joined as a couple. After the ceremony, your guests will have ample outdoor space or use of the cosy Pub to have a drink and relax while the Barn is transformed into your delightful reception space.

Your Reception

Truly unforgettable memories of your reception will be created in the rustic splendour of the Barn. Our extensive menu options will mean you and your guests will have a wonderful dining experience while our warm and friendly staff will make sure that service on your Big Day is to the highest standard.

Honeymoon Cottage

We are delighted to offer as part of your booking the Honeymoon Cottage. This quaint abode provides the perfect space for a variety of options: it might be where the Bride & her Bridesmaids get ready, perhaps where the kids play during the evening, maybe somewhere for Grandma to go and rest away from the music, but most of all it can be the romantic setting for the newlyweds to spend their first night together.

The Wedding Garden

Situated to the rear of the Barn is your very own private and secluded Wedding Garden. With a blossoming new vineyard just beyond the trees, it presents a wonderful setting for photos or perhaps just for you and your guests to relax and enjoy the setting Sun on a warm Summer's evening.
